WE'RE ALL ABOUT PEOPLE®

MIKE HUCKABEE recently formed a 2008 presidential exploratory committee because he feels our country needs a reawakening and leadership to address an array of issues, including how to improve the nation's infrastructure, education system, environmental policy and failing health care system. From 1996–2007, Mike served as the 44th Governor of Arkansas and was one of the youngest governors in the country at the time. He was elected to a full four-year term as governor in 1998, attracting the largest percentage of the vote ever received by a Republican gubernatorial nominee in Arkansas, and was re-elected to another four-year term in November 2002.

A significant part of Mike's adult life was spent as a Baptist pastor and leader. He became the youngest president ever of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, the largest denomination in Arkansas, and led rapidly growing congregations in Pine Bluff and Texarkana. He says that those experiences gave him a deep sense of the problems faced by individuals and families.

Mike and his wife, Janet, live in North Little Rock, Arkansas. They have three grown children: John Mark, David and Sarah.
